We've Added Two New Databases! ^[1]

Check out these new databases which are part of the Texshare database collection:

THE AMERICAN WEST ^[2] The American West ^[2] allows browsers to explore tales of frontier life, Pioneers, Wild West shows, the Gold Rush, vigilantes and outlaws. Document types include: manuscripts, trade cards, wanted posters, photographs, claim certificates, news sheets, rare printed works, brand books, broadsides, correspondence, diaries, directories, journals, pamphlets, periodicals, and artworks. Full color. Searchable. Multiple added features. Sourced from the Everett D. Graff Collection at the Newberry Library, Chicago.

AMERICAN INDIAN HISTORIES AND CULTURES ^[3] American Indian Histories and Culture ^[3] is a unique resource that makes available, for the first time, many rare and significant documents from the Edward E. Ayer Collection at the Newberry Library, Chicago; one of the strongest archival collections on American Indian history in the world. Spanning four hundred years, document types include manuscripts, artworks, speeches and petitions, diaries, correspondence, linguistic and ethnographic studies, photographs, maps, photographs, rare printed books and American Indian newspapers. Full color. Searchable. Multiple added features.

These databases are available inside the library without a password, and remotely with the Texshare password which may be obtained at the Reference Desk.
